FRANCE FIGHTS COMMUNIST SITDOWN

HOUSE WANTS EUROPEAN AID BILL TRIMMED

ROCKY ROAD AHEAD FOR PLAN PASSED BY SENATE, 83-6

Washington, Dec. 2 (P)—President Truman's winter-aid for Europe program was making some progress in congress today, but his list of proposals to beat back inflation wasn't doing so well.

The senate voted yesterday to send $597,000,000 (millions) worth of emergency help—the amount Mr. Truman asked—to France, Italy and Austria.

The house, however, prepared to debate a bill, written by its foreign affairs committee, to send $590,000,000 to France, Italy, Austria—and China. And some house Republicans said they hoped to cut China—and $60,000,000—out of the atom bomb, one official replied:

"You can draw your own conclusions."

Unlike the surface and underwater atom bomb tests at Bikini in the summer of 1946, which were covered by several hundred reporters and foreign observers, the new experiments will be under "full security restrictions," last night's announcement said.

The area will be shut off from the world and the security council of the United Nations will be notified to this effect, as provided in the U.N. trusteeship agreement for the former Japanese-managed islands.

The 145 native inhabitants of the atoll islands of Aomon and Biji will leave for a permanent new home which they will select.

CRISIS AVERTED IN NATURAL GAS

Emergency Supplies Aid Michigan Cities; Blast Wreckage Repaired

Temple, Mich., Dec. 2 (P)—A break in the weather and the diversion of emergency gas supplies combined today to ease Michigan's natural gas crisis, caused by the explosion of the Muskegon River Gas Compressor Station before dawn Sunday.

Sigler said he and Skillman agreed Oct. 2 at a conference in Detroit that the state would find the additional $1,000 and that it would be provided when Skillman telephoned the governor that he needed it.

He said Skillman talked then only about $1,000 but that his request yesterday for $6,000 would be met "to show our good faith."

In a tart letter to Skillman, Sigler suggested the next time the judge need help he telephone the governor instead of giving "letters to the newspapers to create the improper impression the state is not trying to help him."

Skillman had indicted nine Detroit auto dealers and the wives of two of them on charges of sales tax fraud in car deals.

Meanwhile, skilled crews were flown into this tiny community from many parts of the country to speed the repair of the shattered station, operated by the Michigan Gas Storage Company, a Consumers and Panhandle-Subsidiary.

Karn said "preliminary indications" are that the station will be back in service within two weeks—and perhaps less.

Most of the $750,000 damage was done to seven big compressors, which were used to build up pressure on lines flowing southward to Flint, Saginaw, Bay City, Lansing, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Midland and a host of Eastern Michigan communities.

Walter Kroes, 29, was killed and six fellow-workers were burned in the explosion.

Sigler In Hospital For His Operation

Lansing, Dec. 2 (P)—Governor Sigler was in St. Lawrence hospital here today awaiting tomorrow's operation for the removal of his gall bladder and appendix.

Sigler entered the hospital last night to submit to a series of x-ray and laboratory tests preparatory to the operation. The latter will be performed by Dr. Fred Collier of the University hospital at Ann Arbor.

The operation was ordered for a non-functioning gall bladder after Sigler suffered a gastro-intestinal upset in the early fall.

The governor was expected to be incapacitated for several weeks, but planned to perform some of his duties from his hospital room.

BANANA KING DEAD

Detroit (P)—Funeral services will be held Thursday for Anthony Eadaleman, 63-year-old whole-some produce dealer here who became known throughout the country as "The Banana King." He died Monday. A native of Italy, he came to Detroit in 1901, and worked first on the Pere Marquette railroad before beginning to build his successful wholesale fruit business.

Remote Atoll Picked By U. S. To Test New Atom Death Weapon

Washington, Dec. 2 (P)—Project atomic tests behind a curtain of absolute secrecy in the remote Pacific suggested today that American scientists may be preparing new weapons based on the same terrible power as the atom bomb.

A terse announcement from the atomic energy commission disclosed that the armed forces are making tiny Eniwetok atoll—1,500 miles from the nearest large land mass—into a closed-off proving ground for research on "new fundamental data."

What goes on there, the commission said, is expected to result in advances in "peaceful as well as in military applications of atomic energy."

Asked whether a reference to "atomic weapons" means that this country's arsenal now includes a nuclear fission running mate for the atom bomb, one official replied:

"You can draw your own conclusions."

Unlike the surface and underwater atom bomb tests at Bikini in the summer of 1946, which were covered by several hundred reporters and foreign observers, the new experiments will be under "full security restrictions," last night's announcement said.

The area will be shut off from the world and the security council of the United Nations will be notified to this effect, as provided in the U.N. trusteeship agreement for the former Japanese-managed islands.

Sigler Provides $6,000 For Grand Jury, Raps Judge Skillman

Lansing, Dec. 2 (P)—Governor Sigler provided another $6,000 Monday to continue the Detroit auto racketeers grand jury, but he slapped the grand juror, Judge W. McKay Skillman, as he did so.

"Now we'll go to work," declared Judge Skillman when he was informed of the new appropriation. He said he had no other comment on the government statement.

Skillman, Sigler said, was "very unfair" to accuse the state of hampering the grand jury. The grand juror had complained his month-old letter to the governor asking for another $1,000 went unanswered.

Sigler said he and Skillman agreed Oct. 2 at a conference in Detroit that the state would find the additional $1,000 and that it would be provided when Skillman telephoned the governor that he needed it.

He said Skillman talked then only about $1,000 but that his request yesterday for $6,000 would be met "to show our good faith."

ANGRY ARABS WRECK SHOPS IN JERUSALEM

JEWS STRIKE BACK, KILLINGS MOUNT; DAMAGE HEAVY

BY CARTER L. DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, Dec. 2 (P)—Arab and Jewish mobs roamed through Jerusalem's streets in attack and counterattack today, wrecking shops, smashing windows, shooting and hurling stones in violence set off by the Palestine partition decision.

Thousands of Arabs, venting their anger at the United Nations action, opened the demonstrations. Jews, in trucks and afoot, swiftly struck back. It took police and troops almost two hours to restore a semblance of order.

Reports of the day's casualties all over the Holy Land, including confirmed and unconfirmed, totaled three Jews dead and 22 Jews and six Arabs injured. Property damage was heavy.

With most of a three-day Arab protest strike left to go, police imposed dusk to dawn curfew on Arab quarters of Jerusalem, including most of the old walled city, it was officially announced.

Armed cars and Bren gun carriers were called into play by British authorities to disperse the rioters. The British were assisted by thousands of khaki clad young Jews—apparently members of Haganah, self-styled Jewish defense army—who assembled in midtown Zion Square. Jewish volunteers—distinguished by blue arm bands—directed traffic around congested areas.

Barrier Halts Mob

After the main body of the Arab rioters had been dispersed, leaving in their wake a trail of burned shops and overturned automobiles, they were reported regrouped.

WHITE SLAVERY ROUNDUP MADE

Raids In Four States Linked To Traffic At Hagerstown, Md.

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 2 (P)—Fourteen persons were arrested last night on charges of violating or conspiring to violate the white slave traffic act. The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced after conducting raids in four states.

Fred Halford, FBI special agent in charge of the Baltimore office, said the arrests were made in Maryland, Virginia, Indiana and Pennsylvania in connection with transportation of women to Hagerstown for purposes of prostitution.

Three of the arrests were made here, he said, one at Logansport, Ind.; one at Muncie, Ind.; one at Dauphin, Pa., and five at Lynchburg, Va.

Halford said the bureau had placed a detainer against a fourteenth person in custody on a local charge at Indianapolis.

Five men and nine women were named in the charges, Halford said. The Lynchburg group, he said, included a man, his wife and three of their sisters.

In Washington officials said one of the defendants transported his wife from Indiana to Hagerstown on a motorcycle in order to share her earnings, which were estimated to have reached $350 a week at times.

Another was described as the mother of five children who had been placed in orphanages.

Names of the two dead were not announced.

Russian Greed Blocks Austrian Peace Treaty

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

London, Dec. 2 (P)—Prospects that the Big Four foreign ministers will complete an Austrian treaty at their current London conference were largely discounted today by diplomatic authorities, who said there appeared to be no basis for agreement.

The French compromise proposal provided that Russia should receive certain property rights in the Zisterdorf oil fields in Eastern Austria, the Danube Shipping company and a cash payment of $100,000,000 in return for yielding any further claims on formerly German-owned property in that area.

The Russians took the position that they were entitled to all German assets.

PINTO DEER—Wm. Gardner, 426 Delta ave., Manistique, blinks and scratches his head when he came upon the animal he had killed while hunting in the vicinity of the Heinz camp at Cousineau the first day of the hunting season. It was a spike horn buck of ordinary proportions but of the unusual mottled coloring shown in the picture. Not seen in the picture, but present in a number of places, were black spots. The animal is believed to be the offspring of an albino deer which has been seen a number of times in that vicinity, but only at such a distance that its sex has not been determined. Grand Jury Hears Man Who Called Gen. Meyers 'Snake'

Washington, Dec. 2 (P)—A grand jury secretly investigating the war-time private business deals of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers turned today to a former associate who now calls the general a "snake."

Bleriot H. LaMarre, 35-year old self-styled "dummy" president of a Dayton, O., plane parts subcontracting firm, was due to follow his young blonde wife to the jury's chamber.

The 23-man panel is considering charges arising from an investigation by the Senate war investigation committee, which heard testimony that Meyers, while deputy purchasing chief for the Army Air Forces, actually owned the Dayton firm and profited by more than $150,000 on airplane subcontracts.

The grand jury's first principal witness yesterday was attractive Mrs. Mildred LaMarre, once Meyers' secretary.

Meyers, denying he is guilty of any fraud, told the Senate committee he established the airplane parts firm and made LaMarre its president because Mrs. LaMarre was his "girl friend."

Mrs. LaMarre said that was a lie and her husband asked the committee make Meyers "crawl out of here on his belly like the snake he is."

Thomas E. Readnower, vice president of the Dayton firm and Mrs. LaMarre's brother, was another witness subpoenaed for today.

PREMIER ASKS STIFF BAN ON STRIKE WAVES

MAJOR INDUSTRIES STALLED, WITH 2,000,000 IDLE

Paris, Dec. 2 (P)—A 10-hour "silent filibuster" by Communist deputies was broken early today and the national assembly was called back into session (9 a.m. EST) to enact a stringent anti-strike law requested by Premier Robert Schuman to fight work stoppages paralyzing the nation.

One stoppage was ended this morning when police cleared sit-down strikers from six power plants in the Paris area, permitting subways to resume operation after service had been suspended for several hours. More than 2,000,000 workers remained idle, however, stalling every major industry.

Red Deputy Ejected

The Communists' "silent filibuster" against Schuman's anti-strike bill, which is aimed at breaking the Communist grip on the French labor movement, ended when Republican guards ejected Communist Deputy Raoul Calas from the assembly chamber.

Fifty other Communist deputies who had occupied the otherwise empty chamber with Calas followed him out. Calas made no effort to resist the guards and there was no disorder.

Calas refused to leave the speaker's rostrum yesterday afternoon after a vote of censure against him for urging army reservists to refuse to comply with government orders calling them to the colors. The vote also directed his temporary expulsion from the assembly without their knowledge.

Sabotage Big Problem

Calas denied that he was "inciting the army to revolt," but "simply called on soldiers not to fire on the people." The government has called up 300,000 reservists in the last two weeks.

The guards made a full show of force in ejecting Calas. A guard colonel armed with a letter from Schuman entered the chamber with three men. Thirty-six others took up positions on the stairway outside, two hundred more, helmeted and armed with rifles, were at other points in the building and 300 others were outside.

Calas at first said he would not leave except "by force," but when the colonel made the regulation three requests to Calas to go with him, the Communist deputy assented and walked slowly out of the chamber, followed after a few moments by the other deputies, including Communist leaders Maurice Thorez, Jacques Duclos and Andre Marty. They sang the French National Anthem on the way out.

The Schuman anti-strike bill, which the Communist deputies are fighting so bitterly, would give the government power for three months to fine and jail strike agitators, and to apply doubly stiff penalties for sabotage.

Proud Papa Gives Out Cigars; Three Recruits Pass Out

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 2 (P)—First Sgt. Larue Crain, a father in the army, passed out cigars to the newly recruited members of headquarters company, 123rd Infantry, Illinois National Guard at the state armory last night.

There were clouds of smoke as the guardsmen puffed their cigars before the unit was presented for inspection. A few minutes later the group started the close order drill. Three of the recruits slumped to the floor.

"I guess I overdid it," Crain said, explaining the cigars he had given to the recruits were "a bit on the strong side."

"Next time I'll dish 'em out later—after the drill," Crain added.

The luncheon will afford the two their first opportunity for direct discussion of U.S. and Russian problems since the Moscow meeting early this year, when Molotov attended Marshall's conference with Prime Minister Stalin. There was no official indication of what Marshall wants from a meeting with Molotov.

City Employees Seeking More Pay; Civil Service Will Study Wage Scales

In response to a request from the City Employees' Union for an increased salary classification for city workers, the city civil service commission determined at a meeting in the council chambers last night to study wages paid in comparable jobs in the community and those paid in other cities of similar size and report to the city council.

The request was incorporated in a report submitted by Leo Londo on behalf of the City Employees' Union. Other union representatives attending the session last night were John DeChant, Clarence Toushaw and Wilfred Roberts. Commission members present were Albin Carlson, George Rutherford and Joseph White. Others attending were A. V. Aronson, city personnel director, L. W. Jen-

Foe of Gangsters, Judge Chenot Dies In Detroit Hospital

Detroit, Mich. (AP)—Circuit Judge James E. Chenot, one of the best-liked men in Detroit public life but one of the toughest on lawbreakers, died in Grace hospital last night. He was only 53.

When he was taken to the hospital earlier Sunday, it was the third time in less than a year that his condition was considered serious. He had been suffering with a heart ailment.

Judge Chenot, serving as Wayne county prosecutor before starting his 17-year career on the bench, started the prosecution of kidnapping rings and bank robbery gangs that his successor, Harry S. Toy, carried to completion.

Born in San Francisco, he attended high school in Detroit and was graduated from the University of Michigan law school in 1918. At Michigan he was well on his way to football stardom before he was injured tackling Miller (The Brute) Pontius. The injury sent him to University hospital in critical condition and prematurely ended his gridiron career.

Small Too Much For Cattle Ticks

Washington — A "socially impossible" insecticide that is used less than it might be because of its disagreeable musty odor has had its handicap turned into an advantage in at least one case, U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists here report.

Benzene hexachloride, which cannot be used for food-plant protection because nobody would want to eat the food afterwards, has been used effectively against a highly specialized cattle parasite in the Southwest, a tick that attacks only the insides of the animals' ears.

Pine oil containing from three to five percent of benzene hexachloride, when squirted into cows' ears, not only kills the ticks already present but serves as a repellent to hold new attackers at bay for at least 17 days. Counting both killing and repellent action, one dose "de-ticks" a cow for about a month, at the cost of one cent per ear.

DEATH CALLS C. M. DREVDALH

Pioneer Manistique Resident Dies In Marquette

Marquette, Dec. 2 — Christian Martin Drevdahl, 78, a resident of Manistique for 60 years and publisher of the Manistique Pioneer-Tribune for many years, died here at 4:40 this morning at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Morrison.

Mr. Drevdahl, who resided at 644 Arbutus avenue, Manistique, but who had been living at the home of his daughter for the last two months, had been ill one week. Death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage.

"Now, if we city employees would have received the same average increases common labor would now be receiving $1.32 per hour or about $50 a week, which is recognized by both business and labor as the average factory worker's wage today."

"However, we are not asking for $1.32 for labor but only $1, or 32 cents less than the national average."

Londo also cited a comparison between city wages and wages paid to workers in similar jobs in industry in the city.

Holiday Pay

Since Sept. 1, 1947, city workers have received a $7 monthly bonus, it was pointed out by City Manager Aronson, but it has been paid only to those who have worked only the full pay period.

After some discussion, it was determined last night that the bonus will be paid to an employee without full time if he can present a bona fide reason for being off the job.

Half-day holidays also were discussed. The commission voted to pay the holiday rate from 12 noon to 12 midnight on half-holidays, but for any holiday in which there is less than a half-day off, no overtime wages will be paid.

No Lugosi! Theatre Scurries for Coins

It was a tense night at the Michigan theatre last night. To see and hear Bela Lugosi, horror star of Dracula, who was to appear in person on the stage at midnight, 588 people packed the theatre.

"Dracula" was run on the screen; everyone sat waiting for the big event. Young and old were in the audience, all eagerly awaiting the master of horror.

Out in the lobby the management was sweating. Lugosi was to appear at midnight, had been scheduled to arrive at 10 a.m., from the northwest. Calls to Marquette and Milwaukee were placed. Lugosi was not to be found. His reservations at the hotel were kept open.

After a brave effort to hold the crowd, "in case", a March of Time reel was run, but it failed to hold the already dispersing crowd. As they filed out of the theatre, patrons were refunded their money.

And it took lots of change. All the theatre, hotels and restaurants could shut out.

At noon today, no word had been heard from either Lugosi or his director, Don Marlowe, a nephew of D. A. Northrup, 619 South 13th street.

The staff of the theatre left at 3:15 a.m. after distributing 74 cents to 588 persons.

Gift Of Flowers To Help Brighten Municipal Dock

Through the generosity of Mrs. Albert D. Lasker of New York City, a large bed of chrysanthemums will bloom next year at the Escanaba municipal docks at the foot of Ludington street overlooking the harbor.

Robert Clayton, Escanaba city parks and forestry superintendent, today said that he has been advised by Mrs. Lasker that a supply of chrysanthemum seeds will be sent in February to plant a bed 200 feet long and 15 feet wide. The flowers will bloom next fall and will be single, in mixed colors of pink, yellow, bronze, red and white.

The flower bed will border the main sidewalk at the municipal dock. The city has also planted tulips, hyacinths, daffodils and crocus there and in other park areas in the city for spring blooming.

Clayton directed Mrs. Lasker's attention to Escanaba park beautification program after reading an article in American City Magazine, in which Mrs. Lasker's generous offer to supply free chrysanthemum seeds was described. The gift of the seeds are a memorial to Mrs. Lasker's mother, Mrs. Sara Woodard, who had been interested in public park development.

BOATS DELAYED BY FROZEN ORE

Yosemite Clears Today After Waiting Here Nearly Six Days

Rising temperatures to date have brought hope to C&NW ore dock crews that it would continue and ease their struggle with frozen iron ore that has delayed shipping out of Escanaba to the latest closing in many years.

"The ore is still badly frozen and it would take two or three days of warmer weather to do much good," said Lee McMillan, dock agent.

The Str. Yosemite, which arrived at the docks for loading on Nov. 28, cleared today after being loaded slowly with the frozen ore. Also scheduled to clear this afternoon was the E. J. Block, and the A. E. Heekin will be loaded and ready to clear by Wednesday afternoon.

Expected to arrive tomorrow morning is the L. W. Hill. The arrival of at least two more boats, possibly four more, before the close of the season is expected but uncertain, the dock agent reported. Arrival will depend on weather conditions and other factors. There is the possibility, however, that the season may not close until Nov. 8 or later.

Today ore was still being steamed at the plant and on the dock with 300 cars of ore on hand at the yards. Ore was still being loaded at the mines, with loadings delayed as late as possible to reduce the amount of freezing before the ore reaches the docks in Escanaba.

These seed gifts have been made in many communities throughout the country. The flowers bloom from early October through November, even in severe frost.

Massacre

BACK IN 1931, much heated discussion of the Indian problem was aroused in the halls of Congress and in the public press by the publication of a book, "Massacre," by Robert Gessner of Escanaba.

Just out of college, Gessner traveled over 13,000 miles to various Indian reservations and collected wealth of information about the living conditions among the government's wards. He found Indians living in squalor and disease, with the Bureau of Indian Affairs, as then organized, paying little attention to their actual needs.

Considerable improvement was effected after the appointment of John Collier as commissioner of Indian affairs. Collier was a long-time friend of the Red Men, knew their customs, culture and particular traits of character. He understood that the Indians cannot change their mode of living overnight, and after all have a right to live their own life, as Red Men and not as whites.

But the reform of Indian affairs apparently has not gone far enough. It has been revealed of late that the Navajo and Hopi tribes of the Southwest are enduring poverty and suffering due to government mismanagement of their affairs.

Both the Navajos and Hopis have noble traditions and a valuable culture. The handicraft arts of the Navajos, for instance, are widely famous. The Hopis were the original cliff-dwellers, and while left alone maintained their own social structure and supported themselves adequately.

Red tape and senseless regulations, imposed by a bureaucratic government, have brought only misfortune to these Southwest Indians. Although they furnished heroes to fight in World War II, these Indians have been denied the privileges of ordinary citizenship. Their herds have been reduced and other restrictions hamper their self-sustaining efforts.

Either politics, ineptness or graft in the governmental administration of Indian affairs is responsible for the sad state that the Southwest tribes find themselves. It's another investigating job for a congressional committee.

No Need To Worry

ANYONE who has been concerned about the future of the Lake Superior iron ore country should get a measure of encouragement from the statement made by Hugh M. Roberts, Duluth mining engineer, at a recent engineering conference in Duluth.

Mr. Roberts believes that foreign ores will not be able to supplant the Lake Superior minerals for centuries to come. Upper Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota now supply 85 per cent of the nation's needs, and he predicts that this ratio will continue for many years.

Disagreeing with other geologists, Mr. Roberts estimates that high grade ore will be mined in the Lake Superior region for 40 to 50 years and that low grade and taconite ores, estimated at 60 billion tons, will last for at least 200 years. Geographic conditions, he believes, will work to the advantage of the lakes region and enable it to compete favorably with foreign producing areas.

When the time comes for the utilization of lower grade ores, the Upper Peninsula will stand in a good position. An authoritative article in the magazine, Business Week, recently stated that the Michigan ore is rated as being more usable than Minnesota's taconite. Large steel companies have established laboratories at Negaunee and Duluth for conducting research in the utilization of low grade ores, and the past season has seen a step-up in exploration work in this region. Apparently, the Lake Superior country is to see mining and ore shipping for many years.

Always On The Job

BECAUSE so much of its work is of a personal nature, the Salvation Army does not often receive credit for the vast amount of humanitarian service it performs every day of the year.

A report of the organization's activities for October has just come to our attention. It reveals that during the month the Salvation Army gave either meals, transportation or garments to 15 transients, clothing and groceries to 65 local children and adults, and household goods to two families.

In addition, the Salvation Army carried on an extensive program of spiritual work among the unchurched of the surrounding community. These activities included visits to the sick at hospitals and homes, services at the Delta convalescent home, and character-building programs for young people.

Every month, the Salvation Army gives advice and assistance to many unfortunate people. Its charitable work takes its staff to the homes of the poorest families in every community it serves, giving both spiritual and physical aid at a time when it is most needed. No community welfare program could be complete without the unselfish and ever-ready services of the Salvation Army.

Friday Night Shopping

SATURDAY night for late shopping is declining as an American custom.

Time was when Saturday was the big day in county seat towns. Farmers came in from the surrounding area in their horse-drawn buggies, later their automobiles, to make a day of it. Certain restaurants catered to the farm trade because the entire family came in for noon and evening meals.

But while the automobile brought shoppers in from the country on Saturdays, the Motor Age also created a new American institution for city folks—the weekend in the country. The desire for longer weekends, which emanated from New York and the metropolitan centers, gradually spread to the smaller cities and hamlets the length and breadth of the land.

No matter how small the community nowadays, you will find business and professional men who will hie away from their office and shop early Saturday to that weekend cottage vacation along some woodland lake or stream. Even the farmers leave the farm to go to that "little place" in the woods.

As a result of this modern trend in American life, we have Saturday night supplemented by Friday night for late shopping in city stores. Friday is predominantly favored by cities of more than 5,000 population in Wisconsin, according to a recent survey by the Wisconsin State Chamber of Commerce. It meets less favor in communities of less than 5,000, however, although there is a gradual increase in the acceptance of the change from Saturday to Friday nights. There is always a certain amount of resistance to change. Time was when stores remained open every night in order to "catch that last nickel." But gradually, merchants succumbed to the idea that there is more to living than just selling.

Much of the credit for selecting Kennedy and persuading "Boss" Ed Kelly to stand aside is given to Col. Jacob M. Arvey a rising powerhouse in the Democratic organization in Chicago. Arvey and his friends are now evolving some important plans for 1948.

They are trying to settle on a suitable candidate to oppose Illinois' Senator C. Wayland Brooks, who about 99 per cent of the time follows the strict party line of the Chicago Tribune. Two men are under consideration who stand for exactly the opposite of what Brooks and the Tribune stand for.

One is Prof. Paul H. Douglas of the University of Chicago and the other is Adlai Stevenson, who has been a crusader for United Nations and world cooperation. Douglas, who is considered the probable choice, enlisted as a private in the Marine Corps after Pearl Harbor even though he was beyond draft age. He saw a lot of combat in the Pacific and received wounds that required a long convalescence.

Douglas is a liberal who is also a strong advocate of American responsibility in world affairs. His brilliant war record would certainly do him no harm as a candidate.

The selection of such a candidate on the Democratic ticket would have national repercussions. It would sharpen the issue between isolationism of the America First, head-in-the-sand variety and cooperation for world recovery such as most leading Republicans, as well as Democrats, have advocated. The Republican choice for the presidential race might be put in the embarrassing position of having to repudiate or ignore Brooks.

LUCAS MAY OPPOSE GREEN—

If present plans go through, the Democratic candidate for governor will be Senator Scott Lucas. Lucas would give the present Republican governor, Dwight Green, a hot race. Green has not been popular in the state, and the Centralia, Ill., mine disaster, for which the state received a large share of the blame, did not increase the regard for him.

These signs of a break from the old order of machine politics are symptomatic. The big test for the Democrats, however, is in the degree of support which can be counted on from labor.

If the major issue is high prices, with the Taft-Hartley act as a kind of sideshow, then labor might really be stirred up to turn out the vote. Organized labor was able to do that in the industrial centers in 1944 and thereby greatly influence what was in actuality a close election.

In the congressional elections a year ago, labor stayed home. One reason was the split in labor's own ranks produced by divisive Communist elements. A determined effort is being made to remove those elements—and with no little success, as the victory of Walter Reuther at the United Auto Workers convention demonstrated.

The Democrats have an advantage in that they know who their man will be. Not until the Republicans get down to deciding on a candidate will the nature of the contest be clear. But one thing is certain—at this stage of the game, victory is not in the bag, as some complacent Republicans have seemed to take for granted.

HERE'S HOW THEY TALK

(Radio Speech Portrait)

Senator Robert A. Taft

Voice: High baritone, verging on the tenor. The Senator's voice is slightly nasal, but not unpleasantly so. In fact, it is a voice that "mikes" unusually well, not in spite of but, I think because of its nasal resonance. The microphone doesn't like a voice that is muffled, or improperly placed in the back of the throat.

Enunciation: Very good, and far above the average for a man from Capitol Hill, where speech is inclined to be either buccolic or spread-eagle. Senator Taft speaks forward—on the lips—which is good technique for both radio and public-address systems.

Style: As Middle Western as the corn belt. However, the senator's speech is highly individual—one would never mistake him for someone else.

While listening to the broadcast from which the notes for this article were made, I tried to think of a term which would accurately describe Mr. Taft's radio personality. I found that I could not type him by a single adjective. The best description I am able to give is that he talks more like a businessman than like a statesman. Senators and representatives are usually rather stylized, especially when addressing the public. There is a traditional oratorical pattern for viewing with alarm and pointing with pride; but the

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Chicago.—The tradition in American politics is that the president in office in a period of prosperity usually gets re-elected. Time after time the Republicans invoked the full dinner pail in order to stay in power.

If that tradition holds and the present high level of prosperity continues, then President Truman should have little trouble in being re-elected next year. Quite clearly, of course, the opposite is true. In spite of his climb in the public opinion polls, President Truman is rated as the long shot in the presidential sweepstakes.

Part of this is put down to the fact of a party so long in power with an accumulation of conflicts and damaging public squabbles. Part of it seems to be based on the assumption that the voters tend to desert the Democrats in good times and revert to Republicanism.

But even a little time out in the country, away from the hot-house atmosphere of Washington, makes it evident that Mr. Truman cannot be written off. In any event, he cannot be written off at this early date. The decision is still in the making and certain things are happening here which can mean a lot of difference.

MAYOR KENNELLY POPULAR—

The popularity of Chicago's reform mayor, Martin Kennelly, has changed the political picture in Illinois. Kennelly, a successful business man who came up the hard way, has proved to be an able administrator. The fact that he is a Democrat was, in a sense, incidental to his election. But that fact has helped to restore the party's waning prestige.

Much of the credit for selecting Kennelly and persuading "Boss" Ed Kelly to stand aside is given to Col. Jacob M. Arvey a rising powerhouse in the Democratic organization in Chicago. Arvey and his friends are now evolving some important plans for 1948.

They are trying to settle on a suitable candidate to oppose Illinois' Senator C. Wayland Brooks, who about 99 per cent of the time follows the strict party line of the Chicago Tribune. Two men are under consideration who stand for exactly the opposite of what Brooks and the Tribune stand for.

THAT NEW LOOK—

There is a "new look" in America in addition to the ones pictured in the fashion magazines.

It is a look at the world and its suffering people—folks who but for the accident of birth or other circumstances might be your neighbor. You see, there are many American citizens who remember conditions there, and they receive letters from relatives in the old country.

They are high—but it is noteworthy that even among the folks in so-called "modest circumstances" a new car is not unusual even at present prices.

MANIFESTO—

As a son, Clayton Robert, was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wood.

Gladstone—Mrs. Alice Wright of Eastbourne, England, is visiting here a few days with the Misses Empson, while enroute to Los Angeles to visit relatives.

Foster City—Miss Tina Semmens and Lillian Semmens have arrived to assume charge of the hotel.

Sault Ste. Marie—The number of deer taken across the Straits of Mackinac here during the hunting season were 2,387.

TO BE THANKFUL—

There is so much to be thankful for. At last the skullduggery practiced during the war at the expense of the taxpayer is being halted into the light of day. It was to be expected. It follows every war. If there had been no startling disclosures we would have worried still more. The foundation of government is sound.

UNEASY STREET—

If the people of the United States did not have to look beyond their borders, all would be happy.

Yet it is necessary to look upon the suffering, the destruction and the destitution in other lands if we are to mature as citizens of the world. Such an easy phrase—citizens of the world. It is so difficult for anyone with a full stomach, a guarantee of social security, and a warm home to become a citizen of the world today.

For the United States is an island of comfortable living in a raging sea of suffering.

In this holiday season and in the year to come, this sea will crash more uncomfortably against the shore of our collective conscience. Our thankfulness for plenty now should include a working agreement to aid those less fortunate in our world. In this there may be other millions who can be thankful on Thanksgiving Day, 1948.

CARELESS YEARS—

If such a menu were set before a working man in almost any country of the world today except the United States, that worker would consider it not only a holiday—it would RETROSPECT — Around last week Thursday there was considerable writing and speaking about food. There was also considerable eating, that being Thanksgiving Day. We have delayed commenting on this matter of Thanksgiving Day dinners until we recovered from the one we had, which was considerable in quantity and high in quality.

Being a full dinner is rather a silly thing at best, considering how many of us have all we want to eat all of the time anyway. But we can be thankful for the opportunity to live in a land where such bounty is available. Prices? They are high—but it is noteworthy that even among the folks in so-called "modest circumstances" a new car is not unusual even at present prices.

Bridegroom Wears Pants. But He Had To Borrow a Pair

Oklahoma City, (AP)—Like any Texan should, Bert Homer wore the pants at his own wedding—but they weren't his.

They belonged to an Oklahoma City dry cleaner who yielded to young love and the holiday spirit.

Homer is a Baptist theology student at Fort Worth who came up here to marry Mildred Rose on Thanksgiving.

He brought—he thought—a new and specially cleaned suit. He had the coat and vest all right, but for some reason the Fort Worth cleaner had retained the pants.

Despairing his campus slacks as impossible, Homer grabbed an extra pair of trousers from his stepfather—a portly man—and luckily found Richard Kelley's cleaning shop open.

But Kelley took one look and shook his head—they couldn't be altered.

Homer poured out his story. Kelley's heart was touched. He braced himself and made the sacrifice.

"Take mine," he said.

There was no waiting at the church for Mildred.

October Sets New Michigan Record In Traffic Deaths

Lansing, (AP)—Traffic deaths in October set a new record for this year, the state police reported.

Highway accidents cost 146 lives during the month, an increase of 17.7 per cent over the same month year ago, the police said. At the same time, 3,513 persons were injured in 11,043 accidents, an increase of 18.1 per cent.

To the end of October 1,144 persons had been killed and 30,795 injured in Michigan traffic mishaps. The death toll is less than one per cent below a year ago and the injury rate 10.9 per cent more. Total accidents increased 25 per cent.

Sigler Begins His Campaign To Revise State Constitution

Lansing, (AP)—Nearly a year in advance of the 1948 general election, Governor Sigler has started his campaign for popular approval of a general revision of the state constitution.

In a speech prepared for delivery over a Detroit radio station (WJR), Sigler gave three answers to his own question, "Just why should the state constitution be revised?"

He declared:

1. Present constitution, adopted in 1908, is geared to an agricultural, leisurely economy and is not adequate for the present-day industrial Michigan.

2. The present constitution has been amended 44 times in 39 years producing "a hodge-podge of conflicting, unwise, and unnecessary amendments which have served to put the state in a straight-jacket."

3. "A great mass of judicial interpretations of the constitution * * * have, in some cases further limited the power and authority of the legislature and the state administration to meet changing conditions."

of the leading troop-carrier aircraft and watched the Navy and the enemy shoot down our planes.

"Consequently, I realize the necessity of self-sealing tanks to a degree that cannot be appreciated by anyone who has not gone into combat in troop-carrier aircraft. That belief is shared by every troop-carrier pilot and every troop-officer who has been charged with the responsibility of sending his men into combat."

"It is little short of murder. I have waged many battles within this headquarters in an effort to correct the situation—without success. However, a copy of the latest staff study on the subject is attached for your information."

"The actual record of self-sealing tanks for troop-carrier aircraft will show that they have been demanded consistently for a period of a year and a half—that the material is available—that the priority of other Air Forces projects would not be affected—and that the tanks could have been produced and delivered to the United Kingdom in time for the coming invasion."

Secretary of War Stimson, however, merely referred this letter to one of the officers who had opposed self-sealing tanks—Gen. Barnewall Giles—and later in the day, Colonel Laux, the man who dared correct a bad Army blunder, found himself flying to Nome, Alaska, with no orders other than to sit there for the war's duration.

If Secretary of Air Symington really wants to clean up brass-hat blunders, he might call Colonel Laux to get the full story. If not, the rest of the story will be told in this column shortly.

TAME HUNTING
SEASON ENDSFewer Hunters Plied
Area—Many Return
Empty Handed

The last rearguard of hunters headed for home Sunday as the 1947 deer season came to a close, ending what is generally conceded in these parts, the "tamest" deer season in years.

The number of downstate hunters was noticeably fewer and the kill of deer was also smaller. Local residents, many of the old timers, report that this was an off season. The number of deer, it is claimed, has not diminished to an appreciable degree, but unfavorable weather conditions along with the fact that deer started early in the season to go into the heavily brushed areas, accounted for the large number that will make for good hunting next season.

Hunting mishaps were few. The plane crash in which two St. Louis men lost their lives and a woman hunter who was victim of a heart attack were the only hunting fatalities. The accidental shooting of Fred Schon, local hotelman, was the only mishap of this kind in these parts. The injuries, fortunately, were of a minor nature.

Game law violations were about average in number, compared with former years. There were a few cases of soopers plying the game areas before the season opened, a couple of cases of illegal possession of venison, one case of a non-resident hunting with a resident license and several cases of carrying loaded guns in cars.

City Briefs

Mrs. C. A. Zinn, who visited with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Koski over Thanksgiving, left Monday morning to return to her home in Milwaukee.

George Patrick left Monday for Excelsior Springs, Mo., where he will spend several days on business.

Clyde McMillan has returned to Flint, where he is employed, after spending a few days here at his home at 112 South Houghton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewaine Osterhout have returned to Dearborn after spending the weekend here with the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dixon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Giovannini and John Giovannini, of Iron Mountain, visited here over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giovannini, Maple avenue.

Two Are Fined In Local Justice Court

Two game violation cases heard Saturday wound up what Judge W. G. Stephens hopes will be the tag end of the hunting season.

Mrs. Pauline Grey, of Lower Michigan, pleaded guilty to carrying a shot gun in which there were ball loads, in a game area. She was fined $10 and $8.50 costs. The arrest had been made by Conservation Officer Harold Peters in Doyle township.

Peter Popok, of Detroit, arrested in Hiawatha township and charged with having deer in possession on which the metal tag had not been securely attached, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and $8.50 costs. The arrest was made by Conservation Officer Ernest Dernwin.

To Classify Newly Found Pet

Residents of the city living near the home of Mrs. Hulda Blomquist, 140 Chippewa avenue are speculating over the classification and species of a strange bird that is staying at her home and to all appearances content with its surroundings.

It is a fawn colored fowl, conforming in shape and size to an ordinary pigeon. Its feet resemble those of a pigeon but its markings are different, there being a black ring about its neck. Another characteristic, entirely different from a dove, is the curve on the end of its beak.

The bird is perfectly tame and flew over to a group of children playing near the John Blomquist home at 219 North Houghton avenue. It made no attempt to elude the children and submitted to petting as though it were used to handling. It is now at the elder Mrs. Blomquist's home where it seems to be perfectly at home.

Obviously a pet the bird comes under no local classification. Mrs. Blomquist believes that it belongs to some one who will be interested in its safe return and is giving it the best of care.

ITALY HOLDS UP GENERAL STRIKE

Wage Raises For City
Employees Staves Off
Leftist Tieup

Rome, Dec. 2 (P)—The Italian government staved off a nationwide strike of city employees today by agreeing to furnish municipal governments enough money to pay promised wage increases. It also announced settlement of a political dispute in Milan, where Leftists almost seized power Friday in vehement and forcible protests against replacement of the perfect (governor) of Milan province, Ettore Troilo, a Leftist.

Taken together, the two actions eased considerably the heavy pressure under which Premier Alcide De Gasperi's government has been operating for the past month. Reports continued to circulate, however, that Communist-led labor organizations intend to call a general strike in Italy soon, to coincide with one in France. The reports have been denied by the Leftists.

The strike of city employees had been scheduled to start today, but the City Employees' National Federation, announcing the government decision on funds, directed its members to continue work "until further notice."

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY HM WARD

If the weatherman cooperates, Escanaba sports fans may be assured of plenty of ice hockey activity here this winter.

Not only are the newly-uniformed Escanaba Hawks set for a nine-game slate in the new Upper Michigan Amateur Hockey league, but George Grenholm, city recreation director, and Bob Grabowski have big plans for junior hockey at the outdoor rink behind the junior high school building.

That, precisely, is where the weatherman comes in. Last season, the youngsters had a fine outdoor rink, 175 by 60 feet, bordered with regulation four-foot sideboards, but Ol' Sol was around so often, the juniors had to play and practice at the state fairgrounds indoor rink.

And the demand for the indoor rink was so great, the junior program was curtailed. This winter, the youngsters hope they will get plenty of use out of their large outdoor rink.

Grabowski will have charge of the junior hockey program. Two teams, one for youngsters up to 12 years of age and another for those 12 to 15, will be formed and a regular schedule played.

This year for the first time, Escanaba hockey fans will see the Hawks perform in league competition. Newberry, Escanaba, Gladstone and Marquette comprise the new circuit, formed at a recent meeting here. The final organization meeting will be held Dec. 14 in Marquette.

The Hawks have five home league games. They will be host to Newberry Jan. 4, Marquette Jan. 18, Gladstone Feb. 1, Newberry Feb. 15 and Gladstone Feb. 22.

Five rinks are being prepared for general skating, Grenholm reports. The 19th street rink at Roche park will be the big one, where adults and children alike may swing and sway to public address system music.

Neighborhood rinks, primarily for children's use, are being flooded at Ludington park, Webster, St. Patrick's church and one adjacent to the veterans' federal housing project on Lake Shore Drive. Warming sheds will be provided at all rinks except Ludington and the housing project ice surfaces.

But as far as youngsters with a yen for hockey are concerned, the junior high school boarded-up rink is the ticket. One reason why so many first-rate hockey players are produced in northern Minnesota, in such towns as Eveleth, Virginia, Duluth and Hibbing, is that each community has many outdoor hockey rinks where youngsters can play to their hearts' content.

Considerable work has already been accomplished at all city rinks, including the indoor ice surface, and if the mercury drops low enough to permit additional freezing this week, it is possible outdoor rinks will be open for use this weekend.

Dumb Dan Says Walcott Will Trouble Louis

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, Dec. 2 (AP)—Dumb Dan Morgan, whose nickname is the greatest understatement of any given year and who always can find an angle favoring the under-dog in any given fight, figures that Jersey Joe Walcott will give Champion Joe Louis trouble in their title bout next Friday. You'll notice that Dan doesn't say Jersey Joe will win. Here's how he looks at it: "This feller Walcott has been the best heavyweight for the last two years; he hasn't been out of shape in two years... No heavyweight can jab him—he wants to box and he anticipates punches and slips them by moving his head like this." (by this time Morgan was illustrating the moves Walcott would make) ... "He feints and shifts better than Billy Conn did in his first fight with Louis. Hell worry Joe." ... Dan collected his thoughts a moment then continued: "Louis is easy to hit, remember. I coached Max Schmeling before his first fight with Louis and I told him that Joe tries to jab for a round or two, then when that doesn't work, he tires and begins to hook. That's when Schmeling hit him with a right—and I tell you nobody can jab this Walcott."

One-Minute Sports Page

Rip Rowan's 92-yard run last Saturday was the longest run from scrimmage ever made in an Army-Navy game. Previously the record was 85 yards by Army's Elmer Olliphant in 1916 ... Featherweight Boxer Tommy Monte has retired from the ring at the ripe old age of 19 to enlist in the army ... Al Baggett, who used to turn out the (quite) tallest teams in the world (unquote) at West Texas State, means "I open my Brooklyn college squad with three five-foot-six boys. It's been 20 years since I've had any players that small on my squad." ... When the Ranger management invited Taffy Abel to join his old hockey teammates in tomorrow's "night" for Leo Patrick, Taffy replied: "Will be there. Shall I bring my skates?" ... Now they're wondering if Taffy really thinks the 1947 team is that bad.

Thumb Fun

After leaving the Lock Haven, Pa., Teachers College cross country team to victory over Scranton U., on a recent Saturday, Jack St. Clair hitch-hiked to Philadelphia (220 miles away) with his teammate, Harold Berek, to run in the Middle Atlantic A. A. U. meet. On Sunday St. Clair won the junior title and placed fifth in the senior event ... Then the pair thumbed their way back for Monday classes ... That adds up to two firsts, one fifth and a new record for 440 miles.

Notre Dame Retains Top Grid Spot Over Michigan

Yankees Head Red Sox Threat

Miami, Fla., Dec. 2 (AP) — The New York Yankees, disturbed by the sudden turn of events which labeled the bankrolled Boston Red Sox as the team to beat for the 1948 flag, have taken their first direct step toward making a staunch defense of their world championship.

Out of a maze of trade rumors involving nearly every major league team represented here, on the eve of the opening of the National association's convention, has come the news that the Yankees have completed a deal for Pitcher Walter Masterson of the Washington Senators.

Manager Bucky Harris of the Yankees admitted that a deal for a starting pitcher was on the fire, but added that no official announcement would be made until the major league conclave which begins next Monday in New York.

"We should have an important player deal announcement to make in New York next week," Harris said. "In fact, it looks as if we might have two deals to announce."

"The Red Sox, in obtaining Junior Stephens, Jack Kramer and Ellis Kinder from the St. Louis Browns, have become too tough. We can't afford a stand pat policy."

Masterson is the bespectacled right-hander the Yankees were after in the Spring of 1947, together with First Baseman Mickey Vernon, but President Clark Griffith of the Senators refused to part with two of his key men. Off to a slow start, the 27-year-old native of Philadelphia won 12 games and lost 16 last season.

Wolverines Trail By 8 Points; USC Third

By Ralph Roden

New York, Dec. 2 (AP)—Notre Dame retained the top ranking among the nation's football teams today in the weekly Associated Press poll but its margin over runner-up Michigan was cut to a mere eight points.

The unbeaten Irish, who close out their season against Southern California's Rose Bowl eleven Saturday, garnered 1,184 points to Michigan's 1,176. A week ago, the Irish led the Wolverines by 30 points.

Notre Dame drew 58½ first place votes and the Wolverines 54½. Three of the 129 writers who participated in the poll voted the two grid powerhouses as tied for the top slot.

USC Distant Third

The Irish placed on every ballot, with their lowest ranking being seventh place, while Michigan's Big Nine champions and Rose Bowl entry missed out on one. The Wolverines were ranked no lower than fourth on any ballot.

Southern California was a distant third with 836 points and two first place votes. Southern Methodist's unbeaten Mustangs and Penn State's all-conquering Nitro Lions, Cotton Bowl opponents, ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, although neither drew a first place nomination.

Texas moved up a notch to sixth place, dropping Alabama to seventh, and Penn, Georgia Tech and North Carolina retained their eighth, ninth and tenth place berths, respectively.

The Texas gained two first-place votes while North Carolina drew nine. The remaining three first-place ballots were drawn by William and Mary's Indians, who were tied with Kansas for thirteenth place.

Next to Last

This was the next to the last poll of the season. The nation's sports writers will be asked to cast their final ballots next week after the last big game, the Notre Dame-Southern California duel.

The total vote with points figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, first place votes in parentheses.

1. Notre Dame (58½) 1,184

2. Michigan (54½) 1,176

3. Southern California (2) 836

4. Southern Methodist 565

5. Penn State 565

6. Texas (2) 531

7. Alabama 473

8. Pennsylvania 208

9. Georgia Tech 207

10. North Carolina (9) 207

11. Army, 12½, 12, Mississippi, 10; 13. Kansas and William and Mary (3) 64 apiece; 15. California, 55; 16. North Carolina State, 12; 17. Rice, 11; 18. Oklahoma, 10; 19. U.C.L.A., 8; 20. Catawba, 7. Others—Columbia, 6; Missouri, 5; Utah, Oregon and Kentucky, each 4; Minnesota, New Hampshire and Wesleyan, each 3; Illinois and Tennessee, each 2; Muhlenberg and Michigan State, each 1.

Big '9' Attendance Records Shattered

Chicago, Dec. 2 (AP) — Attendance records were shattered this fall as Big Nine football teams played before a total of 2,751,661 spectators during their full 54-game schedule and averaged 55,910 fans for each of their 27 conference games.

The previous marks, set last season, were 2,652,933 for 52 contests and 1,542,827 for 29 conference tilts, an average of 53,201. The 54-game average for 1947 was 50,957 compared with a 52-game standard of 51,018 in 1946. This drop of only 67 per cent was small in view that Michigan did not play Army and Illinois did not meet Notre Dame this season, two major non-conference attractions in 1946.

The top crowd of 1947 was 86,632 for the Minnesota-Michigan little brown jug contest at Ann Arbor.

Best drawing power at home was Michigan's unbeaten Wolverines with a total of 456,005 in six games.

Lujack Cops Heisman Trophy

New York, Dec. 2 (AP)—Aerial Artist Johnny Lujack, who has skippered Notre Dame throughout its current unbeaten campaign, is the 1947 winner of the Heisman trophy, awarded annually to the nation's outstanding football player.

The senior from Cornellville Pa., who finished third in last year's balloting behind Army's Glen Davis and Georgia's Charley Trippi, received 742 points in the poll conducted among sports-writers and broadcasters.

Bob Chappuis of Michigan, the over-all runner-up with 555 points, was named first in the Midwest, while Doak Walker of Southern Methodist received the nod among the Southwest voters. Lujack rated second in the Midwest and the Southwest.

Irish Eye 2nd Straight Undefeated Grid Season

South Bend, Ind., Dec. 2 (AP) — Coach Frank Leahy's Notre Dame football squad trotted through its last drill today before boarding a train for Los Angeles for the Southern California game Saturday—and thought about Knute Rockne.

If the Irish can defeat Southern California, they will have completed two straight seasons without a loss for the first time since Rockne's great team won 19 successive games through 1929 and 1930.

The 1930 season was the last for the famed Irish coach. He was killed in March, 1931, in an airplane accident.

Although Notre Dame claims its second straight mythical National championship, the Irish won't quite equal the 1929-30 record. There were no ties in the earlier string but the present one includes last year's scoreless tie with Army.

Notre Dame's last defeat was in 1945, a 39 to 7 walloping by Great Lake's Sailors in the last game of the season. Emil Sitko of Fort Wayne, Ind., Irish halfback with the best ground-gaining average this year, was captain of the Great Lakes' eleven.

This season Notre Dame has knocked over Pittsburgh, Purdue, Nebraska, Iowa, Navy, Army, Northwestern and Tulane and has come through the mill in pretty good physical condition—with one notable exception.

Terry Brennan, who scored 11 touchdowns, including a 97-yard kickoff return against Army, is through for the season. He had gained a total of 689 yards this year when he injured his knee against Tulane.

The Irish still have Quarterback Johnny Lujack and other assorted talent. The Southern California contest will be Johnny's last collegiate game and he takes into it a three-year record of completing 139 of 273 passes for 2,021 yards and a running average of 5.5 yards on 79 trips.

Tiger Trio Here Friday, But Not For Morning Talk

Harry Heilmann, Dizzy Trout and Bob Swift will be unable to appear at a scheduled Friday morning assembly at the Escanaba senior high school but they definitely will be here for a 1:40 p.m. assembly at the junior high school, a broadcast over WDPC, fish fry at the Elks club and the public meeting in the St. Joseph's auditorium Friday evening.

This information was received by telegram yesterday from the trio in Detroit. Claude Tobin, jr., is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the visit of the celebrated Detroit Tigers. Heilmann is a former Tiger great, and Trout and Swift form a Detroit battery combination.

No, sir—not today with parts so hard to get. Chassis lubrication at frequent intervals is a must—but it must be done right! We use tough, long-lasting Trojan grease...we shoot it through a modern high pressure gun that forces out the old worn lubricant...and we check the work against our lubrication chart for your car.

Regular chassis lubrication will make your car last longer! Drive in today.

Dangerous M-69
November 29, 1947

Escanaba Press:
At the time of Joseph Turner's death, those hills between Perronville and Foster City on M-69 were spoken of as unnecessary hazards. They are mostly steep, narrow ridges. If a modern bulldozer would put in one day's work in each one it would improve the visibility for meeting autoists wonderfully.

Let's have something done about it. There are too many accidents along this road.

Office of Veterans Affairs

With reference to the Annual Report of the Office of Veterans' Affairs of Delta County, prepared for the period Nov. 1, 1946, to Oct. 31, 1947, I am desirous to make public the high esteem in which I hold the staff of employees in charge of that office.

My interest in the continuation of this office and the retention of the present personnel is merely for the benefits and help that is given the veterans and their families, especially those who are in real distress and unfortunate circumstances. The veterans with whom I have talked and who applied for information and help, were grateful for the services rendered them, which is ample proof that the local OVA staff is doing a good job.

I have had occasion recently to consult this office, with regard to specific problems of certain veterans, and believe me, I was amazed at the genuine and courteous co-operation that was accorded me, in behalf of the veterans. The friendly solicitation and sincere effort in solving the problem, promptly won the confidence of the G. I. He is always informed in a clear and unmistakable way, what assistance he can expect from the government, and steps are promptly taken in that direction in order to get results. After all this is what the veteran is entitled to know, and the efficiency of the local OVA provides him with that service.

In view of these facts, I believe the local Office of Veterans' Affairs should have the full endorsement and financial support of the people of Delta County. In giving, you are actually giving aid, comfort and encouragement to the veteran and his immediate family, and furthermore you are making it possible for the Office of Veterans' Affairs to continue with its splendid work.

Sincerely,
H. E. Flath.
